

Looking for a place to escape and unwind? A place to slow down and connect with nature? Just a short drive to the north east of Melbourne, you'll discover the Murrindindi region, an area of stunning natural beauty - from the Goulburn River flats to the rugged peaks and cool temperate rainforests of the Great Dividing Range. If you enjoy fern walks and majestic waterfalls, water sports and fishing, winter snow play, local history, fine food and wine, cosy getaways or a relaxing camping holiday, this spectacular area has it all.

This is Melbourne's closest natural playground, rich with national parks, state forests, Lake Eildon and the magnificent Goulburn River. So many incredible, awe-inspiring locations right on the city's doorstep. Scattered throughout these spectacular hills and valleys are the charming towns and villages of Marysville, Eildon, Yea, Alexandra, Kinglake and surrounding districts.

But don't just take our word for it, come and discover 'Dindi' (as the locals call it), for yourself. Our natural wonders, welcoming towns, legendary country hospitality, delicious food and wine, and vibrant events – you can choose to do more, or less...as you like, naturally, in Murrindindi.

DISCOVER EILDON

Eildon, Thornton and Rubicon have long been popular destinations for those seeking to take some time to slow down and escape the pace of city life. Pleasure boaters and fishing enthusiasts share holidays alongside those aboard luxury houseboats and families camping by the river. The vibe is relaxed, friendly and fun.

Surrounded by national parks and state forests and connected by pristine rivers, with the magnificent Lake Eildon as the centerpiece, this is the perfect place for 'family time' or 'me time'.

Lake Eildon National Park and the Rubicon State Forest offer great camping and bushwalking, timber industry relics, loads of wildlife and stunning wild flowers, particularly in spring and early summer. Mt Torbreck, the highest peak in Murrindindi, is great for an adventurous hike.

Drop a line off the back of a boat at Lake Eildon or nab a spot at the Eildon Pondage. For river fishing, it doesn't get much better than the Goulburn River - one of Victoria's premier fishing locations.

Must Do's:

- Walk or cycle around the Eildon Pondage Walk
- Snap a pic from the Eildon Dam Wall
- Hire a houseboat for the ultimate weekend on the water
- Take in the panorama from the Mt Pinniger Lookout
- Rent a stand up paddleboard or kayak, and head out on the lake
- Explore the Rubicon Valley Historic Area
